

Choosing Foods for Me Teacher Survey

We would appreciate your completion of this brief survey to help us learn how well we are meeting the needs of the children in your classroom or center.

1. How well do you feel Choosing Foods for Me curriculum met the North Carolina Essential Standards for healthy living for grade 4?
 The standards were fully met.
 The majority of the standards were met.
 Some of the standards were met.
 The standards were not met satisfactorily.
2. How well do you feel Choosing Foods for Me curriculum met the North Carolina Core Standards as targeted within the curriculum for grade 4?
 The standards as outlined were fully met.
 The majority of the standards as outlined were met.
 Some of the standards as outlined were met.
 The standards were not met satisfactorily.
3. How many lessons were presented by the EFNEP Extension Program Assistant? _____
4. Did you present any of the lessons?
 Yes
 No
If yes, how many? _____
5. What can be done to better meet your needs as an educator?

6. Do you feel that the students were excited about the Choosing Foods for Me lessons?
- Students looked forward to the lessons.
 - Students did not look forward to the lessons.
7. What changes have you noticed as a result of the participation in Choosing Foods for Me?
- Students wash hands more often.
 - Students wash hands using proper steps.
 - Students try new foods.
 - Students are eating more variety of foods at school.
 - Students play during recess.
 - Students share they are talking with their parents about healthy eating and daily activity.
8. Would you take a moment to think of a specific story of how a student's nutrition and/or physical activity behavior has improved and tell us about your observations?
9. What suggestions do you have to help us improve Choosing Foods for Me?
10. Is there anything else you would like to share about your experience with the program?

Thank you!

The Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP) is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, National Institute of Food and Agriculture (USDA/NIFA). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

North Carolina State University and North Carolina A&T State University commit themselves to positive action to secure equal opportunity regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status or disability. In addition, the two Universities welcome all persons without regard to sexual orientation.

